Tuesday, November 14, 2017

Meeting was opened at 7:02 p.m.

Members Present

Jennie Stewart	Leo Gordon
Lyn Gordon	Clarence Cherry

Jennie welcomed everyone.

Old Business

Flower Bed Cleanup

The Board cleaned out flower beds in front of City Hall, Jennings Station & 367, Bellefontaine & Rayford and Lilac at 270 on November 8. Some perennials were dug up and replanted. It was suggested that in the future flower bed cleanup be done the last week of October.

Adopt a Stop

Jennie noted that a recognition sign had been placed at the bus stop she adopted. She wasn't sure if a sign had been placed at the bus stops adopted by Shelley and Rodney.

Summer Beautification Yard Signs

Alderman Fields asked for additional time to get more bid information.

Railroad Ties at 270 & Lilac

Jennie reported that Mark Dickerson is looking into replacing the railroad ties at 270 & Lilac with bricks.

Veteran's Memorial

Nothing was planted at the Veteran's Memorial. Board will just continue to keep it clean.

Christmas Lights Judging

The I&B Board will judge Christmas lights on Tuesday evening, December 12, 2017.

New Business

Collaboration

The Board plans to draft a letter and reach out to Riverview Gardens School District, Matthews Dickey, Missouri Hills and some Boy Scout groups to see if they would be willing to partner with us when events such as Beautification Action Day is held. We would be willing to partner with them when they would have events in which we could participate.
